Miss Saportas Becomes Bride of Mr.D.T.L. Van Buren

Ceremony Performed Before Temporary Altar in Ball-

Miss Mathilde Saportas, second daughter of Mrs. R. Brown Saportas, was married yesterday afternoon in the new ballroom of the Plaza to Mr. David Trumbull Lanman Van Buren of this city. The ceremony was performed by Mgr. Henry Braan of St. Agnes's Church, assisted by the Rev. William B. Martin of St. Patrick's Cathedral, before a temporary altar which was banked with palms and spring flowers.

The bride passed through the aisle with her brother, Mr. Martin Brown Saportas. Her gown of cream colored satin was embroidered with seed pearls and crystals and her veil of tulle was finished with a headdress of old point lace. The long train of the gown bordered with orange blossoms. Frederick Francis Alexandre, the bride's sister, was her matron of honor. She wore a gown of old blue chiffon trimmed with cream colored lace in coat effect. The bridesmalds, Miss Helen Martin Murphy and Miss Janet Booth, wore gowns of French blue taffeta combined with cream colored lace.

Emerson Elected Equity President Wilton Lackaye Says Final

Count May Cause Him to Make Contest.

The counting of the ballots cast in the Actors' Equity election in the Hotel Astor last Friday showed yesterday, according to an announcement from head-quarters, that John Emerson, head of the regular ticket, had been elected president. This result had been generally anticipated. The complete count will not be finished in time for an offiannouncement until next Wednes-When Wilton Lackaye, the candiday. When Wilton Lackaye, the candidate of the independents, was informed of the result he said:

The result so far announced affects only the head of the ticket. The rest of the ticket has not been counted yet. If the result should show when all the scratch and other ballots are gone over that the whole independent ticket is de-feated it is possible that I might contest the election. I have until Wednes-

"If I should make a contest I would base it on two main grounds. One is that the council postponed the election from May 31, the regular date, until June 4. This disfranchised many voters who had paid their dues up to May 31, but not having said them to November were not in benefit June 4. The other ground is that the council permitted members who had voted by mail when on the road to vote
